The house cleaning time has come when we go through our stocks carefully each week to sort out slow moving stocks, single pieces and broken lines which we wish to clear up quickly even though we do so at a loss. The manufacturers also are doing the same thing and we find opportunities for buying much desirable merchandise at prices far below the regular values.

The following items are partly special purchases and partly mark-downs from our own stock.

Children's Coats in sizes from 6 to 12 years, made from light-weight fabrics in grays and browns.

$12.50 Coats,	$5.00
$10.00 Coats,	5.00
$ 7.50 Coats,	3.50
$ 5.00 Coats,	3.50

Women's Tailored Suits in popular black and white shepherd checks with 36-inch coat, tastefully trimmed with black ottoman silk and lined with good quality satin; a good $20 value at $12.50.

One lot of ladies' light-weight, short coats in broadcloth and serge in fitted and semi-fitted styles, lined with taffeta silk, formerly priced from $10 to $18.50, $3.50.

Broad Dutch collars and jabots to match made from fine quality lawn with insertion and edges of dainty lace, made to sell regularly at $1.00 per set, special at 50c.

Misses' Junior suits in serges, fancy panamas and mixtures with short skirts suitable for girls of 12 to 17 in both two and three-piece styles.

ROOSEVELT SEES DROVES OF ZEBRA, GIRAFFES AND ANTELOPE

Directed by Number of American Missionaries at Makindu, British East Africa, This Morning, Before Starting on Journey to Kapit Plains.

(By Warrington Dawson, Staff Correspondent, United Press.)

Makindu, British East Africa, April 22, 7 A. M.—The special train bearing Colonel Theodore Roosevelt and his party toward Nairobi reached here this morning after a slow but very pleasant trip from Mombasa. There were a number of American missionaries waiting in the station here to greet the former President and he expressed his delight at seeing them and discussed in a general way the work they are doing. Breakfast was served here and the party soon afterward resumed, the party being due at the Kapit Plains station about noon.

Before continuing his trip to Nairobi, Colonel Roosevelt is expected to stop and visit the big Maxmillian lion and the former St. Louis millionaire and also Hugh Heatley's Kamiti ranch. At the latter place the former President is expected to get his first shot at the African buffalo which are very numerous. Colonel Roosevelt has the hunting fever as the result of the excitement of yesterday afternoon and today after daylight. From the windows of his car on the special train he saw droves of zebra, giraffes and antelope. While they were in the distance the sight was inspiring to the hunters and they watched them closely. Most of the game was seen this morning while running slowly from Masagalendi and Kabwezi to Makindu.

We often wonder how any person can be persuaded into taking anything but Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung trouble. Do not be fooled into accepting "own make" or other substitutes. The genuine contains no harmful drugs and is in a yellow package. F. B. Brill, local agent.

THE HUGO RECITAL

FILLS WARNER HALL

PUPILS OF WELL KNOWN TEACHER ARE ASSISTED BY MRS. MARTIN AND MR. WHEELER.

Warner hall was well filled last night those who had come to hear the good students' recital by pupils of John Adam Hugo. There were three recitals, in which two pianos were used. Mr. Hugo playing the accompaniment in each instance. Miss Eugenie Still played the first movement in G minor. Miss Edna B. Northrop played the Second and Last movements in G minor. Both selections were from Mendelssohn. Miss Gertrude A. Evers gave the Last Movement in G minor, Op. 58, by J. S. Bach. All the work was creditable, but Miss Northrop had the "musicalian's touch" and made her piano "sing." Others who participated with credit were Frederick Wieler, piano; Joseph Wieler, who sang during the evening five selections, which were much admired; Miss Beatrice Birdseye, Miss Ella Sanger, and John D. Wooster. Mrs. Robert Douglass Martin also creditably sang several selections.

A Tonic Free from Alcohol

Talk with your doctor about Ayer's non-alcoholic Sarsaparilla. Ask him if he prescribes it for pale, delicate children. Ask him if he recommends it when the blood is thin and impure, and when the nerves are weak and unsteady. Ask him if it aids nature in building up the general health.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Forty years ago Orient Chapter, No. 1, Order of the Eastern Star, was organized in this city, despite the opposition of many members of the Masonic Fraternity, who did not desire women identified with the order in any way. Orient chapter was the first of its kind. Now there are 37 Chapters in Connecticut alone. It was the 40th anniversary of the event that was celebrated, last night, at the meeting of the chapter in Masonic Temple. Grand Officers were present, and so was former Mayor Hugh Stirling, the oldest living past patron of the chapter. The feature of the evening, aside from the beautiful decorations, the musical program and a supper that was served, was the historical address by Mrs. S. J. Porter, who is one of the few remaining charter members. She related the installation of the chapter by Robert Morris, of Lagrange, Ky., in Feb. 1869. She recited in some detail the opposition of men Masons to what at that time were scornfully called "Hen" Masons. But she indicated that the auxiliary has fully justified its existence. In Connecticut especially valuable work has been done by women in maintaining the Masonic Home at Wallingford. The celebration was in the hands of committee, who were: Chairman, Mrs. S. J. Porter; secretary, George E. Mellus; Mrs. Fred Schussler, treasurer; Worthy Patron, William A. Lewis; Worthy Matron, Mrs. G. P. Herthal; Mrs. Fred Schussler and Mrs. Mellus. The official guests were the grand matron, Mrs. Ida Davis of Collinsville; grand patron, Mrs. Rawlings of New Britain; Grand associate conductress, Mrs. Bertha Schussler, and the grand Ada, Sister Gardner. Grand Matron Davis made brief but interesting remarks.

Twenty-four persons were seated at the first annual banquet of the Baracca club, which was held in the parlors of the First Baptist church, last night. Among those who responded to toasts were, Rev. George H. Nicholson, pastor; Theodore T. Phillips, superintendent of the Bible school and A. Joseph Williamson, president of the club.

At its business meeting last night, the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Baptist church decided to give a supper in the church parlors, Tuesday evening, at 6:30. The supper will be followed by the annual business meeting of the church society.

The Contemporary Club met at the residence of Judge and Mrs. George W. Wheeler last night for the double purpose of holding the annual meeting, and listening to Richard Watson Gilder talk upon "Poetry as a Means of Grace." Mr. Gilder was introduced by Arthur M. Marsh. The address was all that had been expected, even from so eminent an authority as the editor of Century. Nathaniel W. Bishop was elected president of the club. Other officers were chosen as follows: Worthy President, John S. Pullman and Mrs. Charles W. Hawley; secretary, Miss Mary N. McCord; treasurer, Mr. Herbert M. Knapp; executive committee, Dr. Charles C. Godfrey, Mrs. George W. Wheeler, Mr. Nathaniel W. Bishop, Mr. George Comstock, Dr. Alfred C. Fones, Miss Minnie A. Walter, Mr. John S. Pullman, Mr. Herbert M. Knapp, Mrs. Charles W. Hawley, and Miss Mary N. McCord.

The Trio club will give a dance this evening at the hall in Warner Institute, which will be managed by the following committee: Chairman, Miss Carrie E. Mitchell; assistant chairman, Miss Adeline W. C. Severin; floor committee, Mrs. Douglas Owen, Harry Bie-ger, Joe Finn, Rudolph Baumann. The patronesses: Mrs. H. Mitchell, Mrs. A. Severin, Mrs. J. Schultz and Mrs. J. Hullmann.

The Silver Star Whist club will meet next week at the home of Mrs. H. Mitchell, 392 South avenue. The meeting this week was at the home of Mrs. Lawrence, Broad street, when the prizes went to Mrs. L. Lannon, Mrs. R. Mahoney and Mrs. Mitchell, in the order named.

Mrs. C. B. Doremus is in charge of arrangements for the Art League luncheon, which will be held at the Stratfield, Monday, May 3, at 1:30 p.m., in the Wisteria Room.

Mrs. C. B. Doremus is entertaining Mrs. J. M. Bailey of Middletown.

Mrs. James Edward Wilson, of New York, Monday contributed a paper to the Mosaic club.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Smith will sail to-morrow for Europe.

The weekly meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance union will be held at their rooms 229 Gilbert street, Friday at 1 o'clock. There will be a meeting of the executive committee at 2:30.

Mrs. E. J. VanStone is to spend the summer in Canada.

Mrs. S. A. Breerton has returned from a visit in New Jersey.

Mrs. G. A. Jamieson has returned from a week spent in New York city and Newark.

The lives and works of Alice and Phoebe Cary, the sister poets, were discussed at the regular meeting of the University Women's Club, which has held Tuesday afternoon, at the residence of Mrs. P. M. Hammond, 539 Clinton avenue. Mrs. J. W. Knowlton, Mrs. Hammond, Mrs. W. K. Graff, and Mrs. Wm. Suggett arranged the program.

Mrs. J. W. Bailey, Middletown, entertained an audience of Olivet Congregational church, last night, with an illustrated lecture on the Passion Play, as it is given at Ober Ammergau, Bavaria. The lecture was fully up to the mark, and the pictures which have been heard in this city. Mrs. Bailey was introduced by Rev. Morgan Miller, pastor of the church.

The exhibition of impressionist paintings by "The Eight" now in the art gallery of the Public Library will close tomorrow evening at 9 o'clock and the pictures will then be shipped to Newark. The gallery will be open to-day from 2 to 5 p.m. and on Saturday from 2 to 3 p.m.

THE INDIAN MEDICINE MAN can produce roots and herbs for every ailment, and cure diseases that baffle our most skilled physicians, who have spent years in the study of drugs.

From the roots and herbs of the field originated Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for thirty years has proved more potent and efficacious in curing female ills than any combination of drugs known.
